Office Action Summary	Application No. 10/575,077	Applicant(s) MINAMI, TERUYUKI
	Examiner MAURICE WILLIAMS	Art Unit 3611

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 06 February 2009.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 2, 3, 8-11, and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fukagawa et al. (US 5,518,272).

Fukagawa discloses a first and second parallel fuel tank (3, 4), wherein the second tank is lower than the first (Fig. 1); a longitudinal movement stopping device (10f) redirecting the longitudinal movement of the first tank;

a weakened portion (section of 22) fixed to bottom of support structure (see Fig. 1), which has a width less than the other portions of the support structure (including 12); left and right rockers (11, 13) extending in the vehicle transverse direction.

Crossrails 11 and 12 comprise a falling out preventing structure which are part of the subframe and prevent the fuel tank from falling out, as the longitudinal direction between the rails is smaller than the diameter of the fuel tank (Figs. 1 and 3).

The positioning of the fuel tank shows that a longitudinal movement of the tank may be caused due to a vehicle collision, while the vehicle is moving forward.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fukagawa. Fukagawa discloses as discussed above, but does not directly disclose a third fuel tank. However, it would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to include an additional fuel tank in order to provide additional reserve fuel for the vehicle.

5. Claims 7 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fukagawa in view of Skaggs (US 1,523,370). Fukagawa discloses as discussed above, but does not directly disclose fuel successively used from the first, then second tank. Skaggs discloses a first and second fuel tank (2, 7) wherein the fuel is drawn from the first and second tank (Fig. 2). Therefore, it would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify Fukagawa as taught by Skaggs in order to provide a means of drawing reserve fuel once the initial fuel supply is depleted.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments, see Remarks, filed 2/06/09, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 2, 3 and 6-12 under § 102 and 103 have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of newly found prior art.
